BANQUET WILL BE MRS. ECCLES' GIFT

When the pioneers of Utah, now residents of Weber county, gather around the banquet tables at the Idlewild resort in Ogden canyon, in the early afternoon of Pioneer Day, the assembly will doubtless be one of the most interesting that has ever been witnessed in the state. The gathering will be an evidence of the ability of the Daughters of the Pioneers' organization of Weber county to carry out an undertaking with virtually perfect success as, it is believed, every pioneer in the county, who is able to be out of doors, will be at the banquet.

The invitation committee has worked assiduously for a number of weeks, in conjunction with the captains and members of the different companies to secure the names and addresses of the old folks and the banquet committee has arranged a splendid dinner and program for them.

It was learned late today that Mrs. Bertha Eccles, president of the Daughters of the Pioneers' organization of Weber county and chairman of the banquet committee, is to bear the total expense of the banquet, as her donation to the general expense fund of the celebration.

Following the banquet at Idlewild, the pioneers will be returned to the city, under escort of the committee, and may have the privilege of stopping at Glenwood park or being taken to any part of the city, on the lines of the Ogden, Logan and Idaho railway company.

LOCAL TEAMS ARE TO MEET SUNDAY

The regular Sunday baseball game will be played tomorrow afternoon at Glenwood park, the competing nines being the Utamades of the former Northern Utah league and the Southern Pacifics, a local independent organization. A healthy spirit of rivalry exists between the two nines, Manager Mann of the independent being of the opinion that Manager Williams of the Utamades failed to obtain the best local amateur talent when he organized his league nine. Williams thinks otherwise and is willing to let the fans be the judges tomorrow.

The line-ups will be as follows:
Southern Pacific. Utamades.
Tracy. Pitcher. Scott.
Wolsley. Catcher. Wilson.
Mann. First base. Fuller.
Dahlenburg. Second base. Vandiver.
Cox. Third base. Butterfield-Checketts.
Owens. Short stop. Wessler.
Stewart. Left field. Palek.
Jensen. Center field. Williams.
Nerden. Right field. McStewart.
The game will begin at 2:30 o'clock.

WORLD'S MARKETS

Chicago Grain
Chicago, July 22.—Wild rushes to buy carried wheat prices up 3c a bushel today before any reaction set in. Continued unfavorable reports as to the crop outlook in the northwest gave the impetus to the advance. According to one leading authority no improvement in black rust conditions could be expected from now on as the pest was shutting off nourishment from the soil. Opening prices, which ranged from 1-2 to 1-7-8c higher, with September at 1-15 3-4 to 1-16 3-8 and December at 1-18 5-8 to 1-19 1-4, were followed by a rapid further ascent and then a slight downturn. Dry, hot weather lifted the corn market. Wheat strength was also a bullish factor. After opening 1-4 to 1-4-1-4c higher, prices continued to rise.

Cuts shared the bullishness of other cereals. Offerings were scarce. Provisions averaged higher with grain. Weakness of the hog market was virtually ignored.

Subsequently reports from Morris, Manitoba, that black rust was appearing on upper stems in every field there led to a fresh upward swing in wheat values here. The close was strong, 3-8 to 3-4-3-4c net higher with September at $1.19 and December at $1.21 7-8.

Heavy profit taking sales on the bull brought about a temporary setback in corn. The close was unsettled at 1 to 2 1-2c net advance.

Omaha Livestock.
Omaha, Neb., July 22.—Hogs—Receipts 6600; market lower. Heavy, $9.20@9.50; light, $9.25@9.65; pigs, $8.00@9.00; bulk f sales, $9.15@9.25.
Cattle—Receipts 100; market steady. Native steers, $7.25@10.25; cows and heifers, $6.25@7.55; western steers, $7.00@9.00; Texas steers, $6.75@7.75; stockers and feeders, $6.00@8.25.
Sheep—Receipts 1700; market steady. Yearlings, $ 6.75@8.25; wethers, $6.50@7.75; lambs, $9.75@10.55.

Sugar.
New York, July 22.—Sugar futures were generally steady in sympathy with the recent strength in raws. Closing prices were one point lower to three points higher. Sales 3650 tons; September, 5,39c; December, 5.10c; March, 4.47c.

BOMB IS SET OFF

San Francisco, Cal., July 22.—Three men were killed and several were injured by a bomb explosion at Stuart and Market streets, on the line of march of the preparedness parade while the parade was passing today.

The bomb, made from nails, cartridges and dynamite, was placed in a suitcase in front of a saloon, before which hundreds of people were crowded. The building was wrecked and stores across the street partly demolished. Persons cut, half blind, the blood streaming from their faces and bodies, ran wildly through the crowd, and others, panic stricken, stumbled over the bodies of the dead and injured, piling up in heaps on the street.

It is believed the dead will total eight. The number of injured is estimated at least fifteen.

One must be grateful to Mlle. Rita Jolivet, Morosco-Paramount star, for showing us both sides of the picture of this charming negligee. Even clouds of purple chiffon should have a silver lining, which is supplied in this costume by a pointed tunic of broad satin, which also asserts itself in a broad collar and a bretteau which crosses from the left side to the right shoulder. The petticoat is of accordion pleated chiffon of the same shade as the tunic. What one does not see are the purple-tasseled mules this screen star wears when so attired in her boudoir.
